Reading Comprehension Look at the types of questions on the reading progression document to see how the questioning changes/extends from half term to half term. GREY A AND B BOOKS ON BUG CLUB GREY A 3 TERMS, GREY B 3 TERMS	INFORMATION RETRIEVAL Retrieve information from fiction or non-fiction and, with support, record this information. MAKING INFERENCES Draw inferences such as characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and with support can sometimes justify inferences with evidence. PREDICTION Predict what might happen in a story and, when directed to a relevant page, can find stated and clearly implied evidence to justify the prediction. LITERARY LANGUAGE Discuss words and phrases from a page they have read and, with prompts if necessary, can explain how they capture the reader's interest and imagination.	LITERAL COMPREHENSION With support, identify main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph. ACCURACY Automatically track meaning of text during reading, self-correcting as part of the reading process (often without this being apparent to listener). With occasional support, make a good estimate of meaning of an unfamiliar word in context. PERSONAL RESPONSE AND EVALUATION OF A TEXT Participate in discussion about books by giving a personal response to questions, taking turns and listening to what others say. PERFORMANCE Use appropriate actions and gestures to convey the meaning of a poem or play script. VOCABULARY	SEQUENCING Retell stories with support, and relay main points of sequentially ordered non-fiction texts in correct sequence, sometimes with different degrees of detail, depending on purpose. INFORMATION RETRIEVAL Use range of different non-fiction text features to help retrieve information from a text, and with support choose a simple way to record the information they have discovered. VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT With prompting if necessary, use a dictionary to quickly check the meaning of a word that is unfamiliar to them.	LITERAL COMPREHENSION With support, concisely sum up main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph. INFORMATION RETRIEVAL Ask a question they would like to find the answers to in a fiction or non-fiction book. RANGE OF TEXTS Identify key themes and conventions in a range of books.	LITERAL COMPREHENSION Discussing a book with others, ask questions to improve understanding of the text. SEQUENCING Retell stories with support, and relay main points of sequentially ordered non-fiction texts in correct sequence, usually with different degrees of detail and at a different length, depending on purpose. ACCURACY Check that text makes sense, discussing their understanding and explaining meaning of words in context. PREDICTION Make a plausible prediction about what might happen next in a story, and when prompted can explain reasons. VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT	LITERAL COMPREHENSION Identify main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarise these. INFORMATION RETRIEVAL Retrieve and record information from fiction and non-fiction. MAKING INFERENCES Draw inferences such as characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and can justify inferences with evidence. WORDS/VOCABULARY

Use adverbs in dialogue: "Come in," he suggested hesitantly.

Use of modal verbs: I might join you for dinner, I could have won if I had tried harder.

SENTENCE STRUCTURE

Vary sentence starters

- -ed: Terrified, Harry slunk into the inky shadows.
- Developing – ing starters: Hobbling painfully, the old man entered the open door. Barking furiously, the dog chased the flying frogs through the dark town.
- Simile: Like a torpedo, the whale swam through the ocean. As tall as a skyscraper, the giant faced the townspeople.
- Power of 3 to persuade: Work. Rest. Play.
- Power of 3 to show action and pace: Fox raced across the plan, entered the forest and headed for the safety of the cave.

- Vary sentence length.
- Use short sentences to speed up events: The clock struck.

TEXT STRUCTURE

Narrative:

- Well-organised in paragraphs which indicate a change in time or place.
- Use grammatical techniques to create suspense in the build-up to introduce the problem.

Non-narrative

- Information linked within paragraphs using connecting adverbs and other cohesive skills.

PUNCTUATION

- Secure comma in complex sentences and with fronted adverbials.
- Comma between direct speech and reporting clause: "The door is open," called Grandma.
